BIOGRAPHY OF PROPHET MOHAMMAD (P.B.U.H)

Origin of Polytheism in Arabia: - It all started during the time of Prophet Ibrahim and Prophet Ismail .They didn't not believe in polytheism but after some time people start rejecting their message .They had love for Arabia, When they go out for trade with Caravan they carried stones with themselves so that they can reach at destination easily and have profit in business.

People, who were away from Kaaba, start taking stones from Kaaba and giving respect just like we respect Hijr-e-Aswad. They took stones of mountains and say that these stones are pieces of broken stars. When they found any unique shaped stone they start worshipping it.

The first idol that was placed in Makkah was HIBL, The person who brought him here was Umro-bin-Luhi. He was travelling to somewhere and he saw at one place people doing idol worshipping, he told them we have not any idol to worship; we also need an idol to worship, so they gave it to him. Gradually, there start growing number of statues. The two famous statues Isaaf and Nail, these two were placed at Zum-Zum.

Different communities have their own statues like:

- Aazi was Quresh's statue.

- Laat was Sakeef's
- Minaat was Aawus's and khiraj's.

People have forgotten the lesson of Ibrahim (A.s)

Where did the polytheism come from in Arabia? :-

Different generation comes and were destroyed .The govt. was now in Qusaay's Hands, he was a son of Kilaab and was from Prophet Ismail's family. So far in arab they have only tents and no one would have dare to construct a house in Kaaba or anything taller than Bitul-Allah . Qusaay was the first person who constructed building taller than Bitul-Allah and named it Daar-ul-nadwa where they solve the community problems.

He did lot of good things in his life .He held two positions to serve the pilgrims coming from different countries Sikaya and Rifaada .Sikaya's work to serve zum-zum water to pilgrims, Rifaada serve other things. And other position was Hijabah; this group takes care of Kaaba who is going in and out. These three positions have their own importance in Arabia and were very famous. When he became old all three positions come in hands of his elder son Abad-ul-daar, he has other son named Abid-manaaf and later on these three positions were distributed between them. Minaaf got sikaaya and Rifadah. Minaaf's elder son was very good person and these positions were given to him, his name was Hashim. Hashim was a kind hearted man; he improved the financial problems of Mecca and sent two group of traders outside of mecca for trade one in summer and one in winter. With the permission of king of Rome they go there for trade. In Arab's people fear to go out for trade because of robbers and Hashim told them he will provide to whatever you want in half amount, so don't try to hurt our traders.

One day Hashim and some of his people went for trade to Syria (sham) in return they passed by yesrab and he saw there a women she was very polite, moral and innocent as seemed through her talk. Hashim asked to his friends who is she; they replied she is Salma and she is a daughter of Umro and is from bani-Najar's Family. Then Hashim asked her for marriage and both get married with each other. And brought her to Mecca and after spending some days in Mecca she went back to yesrab, here she gave birth to child named Sheebah and then after some time Hashim went for trade to Syria and died here.

Now Mutalib starts caring about him and went to yesrab for his nephew sheebah and bring him to Mecca, when he reached Mecca all starts shouting that Mutalib brings slave. Then Mutalib told them he is my Nephew, he is a son of Hashim. From that time people starts calling him Abdul-Mutalib.

How did the first idol come to Arabia? : - After the death of Mutalib, Abdul-Mutalib had become mature now. He takes care of his uncle's work and both the positions rifada and sikaaya come in his hands. One night a voice came to his dream, that voice was “Clean the Zum-Zum”. While cleaning he found swords of mizaaz, with the help of these swords he made door of Kaaba. He got exhausted while cleaning it, at that time he only had one son named Haris and he made dua to Allah and asks for ten sons and says i will sacrifice one son instead. Allah listen’s his dua and gives him ten sons.

Now it was a time to sacrifice one son, he brought all sons together and asks them to write their names on arrows. He brings the arrows with him and went to Kaaba. Where he met a Jothish and told him the story and wants to know which son does Hibl evil of gods like. Here Abdullah’s name came, he was dearer to him and people also don’t want to sacrifice him. People asks him if you sacrifice camel in place of him, so he agreed and wrote name of ten camels and Abdullah’s name and again his name come. This process continues until the hundred camels.

Abdullah was so smart and handsome everyone loves him and after some time he got married to Amina and Amina got pregnant, after couple of months he went for trade to Syria, after returning from Syria he stayed at Madena but here he got severely ill with the Caravan and by the time they got to Yathrib which later became Madena, He said to Caravan, I have relatives in Yathrib, I will stay here until I recover. By the time when Caravan comes back, she is told that he is sick and he should be coming in a few weeks, and his brother was sent to Madena to look after his brother but unfortunately next news comes that he is passed away in Yathrib. This was a big loss for them; they couldn't come out easily from that grief. Abdullah was 25 when he passed away.

Birth Of prophet Mohammad(P.B.U.H) :- When the time came close to the birth of the Prophet (peace be upon him), his mother saw a dream that she gave birth to a boy and with this boy a magnificent emergence of light spread out and enveloped the earth until it reached Busra in al-Sham in the land of Syria.

On a Monday, the 12th of Rabee' al-Awwal (based on the strongest opinion) during the year that became known as the 'Year of the Elephant', 50 days after the incident of the Elephant, the Prophet (p.b.u.h) was born. And with his birth, a number of interesting and extraordinary incidents occurred. We recall them; keeping in mind that the greatness of the Prophet (p.b.u.h) is not in these incidents, but simply that it is from the signs and glad tidings of his arrival. His greatness is not in his birth, but rather it is within the message and teachings that he brought to mankind.

When Mohammad was born, Amina informed Abdul-mutalib to see Mohammad. The good news reached Abdul-Mutallib, who was overjoyed by the news and kissed on his forehead. He took him to Kaabah and did tawaaf, and he named him Mohammad. He took Muhammed (peace be upon him) before he was even named, into the Ka'bah and raised him and thanked Allah for his birth. As for naming him Muhammed, there is a story behind it. Abdul-Mutallib was on a journey in al-Sham with three of his companions. Along the way they met with a group of rabbi Jews. The Jews asked, 'From where did you come?' They replied 'We are from Makkah'. So one of the rabbis said to them 'That from your country a Prophet will emerge'. They asked, 'What is the name of this Prophet?' He replied 'His name will be Muhammed'. Until then, the name Muhammed was not used by the Arabs. These four companions, when they returned, each one of them decided to name any of their new offspring Muhammed. Abdul-Mutallib could not have any more children, so he wanted to name the first child that would be born to any of his children Muhammad. And so it happened to be the Prophet (peace be upon him) and so he named him Mohammed.

Mohammad means “one who is praised” and people asked Abdul-mutalib why you named him Mohammad, at that time no one has that name in Mecca. He replied I named him Mohammad because I want him to be praised not only by the people of earth as well as by the people of heaven.

When Mohammad was A child:- It was custom there that the Quresh's Famous Family women's didn't feed milk to their children's, but the women's of Bunu-Saad Ibn Bakr feed them, for some time the brother of Abdullah Abu-Lahab's one bonded women named shoiba feed him milk. For seven days Amina herself feed him milk.

After some days women's from the Kabeelah of Bunu-Saad came here to take babies for two three years to foster fed newly born child. Some of the women didn't even go visit the house of Amina because her husband is died and they thought that will not get much money here. Every woman had acquired one of these new born children except one woman her name was Haleema, No one asked her because she was feeble and thin in structure and was a daughter of Abu-zohaib. Other women's thought that Mohammad father is passed away and we will get nothing here, so they ignore him. When she saw that everyone had acquired new born child, she felt embarrassed. It's like a bit shameful that all of my friends are going back with babies and her husband asked her why don't you take that orphan child, Perhaps Allah will bless us through him. She realized that it's better to take Mohammad without going back to home off hand. So she went to Amina's house and asked her she will take care of your son and feed him milk. And she gave her son to Haleema.

When Haleema brought Mohammad to her house, Miracles began in her house and everything changed in her life. Her fate awakened and she was blessed with more milk and her camel was also feeble like her and her camel was blessed with more strength. She had a goat that had stopped giving milk for long time ago. As soon as Prophet entered into her tent, the goat start giving milk And both Haleema and her husband used to sleep like a log.

Haleema had one son his name was Shaymah and she start growing quickly. Her body parts become stronger day by day. Now it was time to return the Prophet Mohammad to his mother. But Haleema doesn't want to separate herself from Mohammad easily because she loved him very much. When she reached to Amina's house in Mecca. She kept trying to convenience her that Mohammad will not be comfortable in this environment, she kept on trying. Finally, Amina became ready and gave her Mohammad again for some time.

At the age of 4 he was playing with other children's and Jibril came, the other children ran away, they scared. The prophet Mohammed stood his ground and shows bravery, they both start fighting and Jibril forced him on the ground and opened up his chest (Shek Sadar). And he took his heart out and took out a black portion from the heart and threw it away. And he said its Shaythan's portion that he had in you and then he washed the heart in a golden cup of zum-zum, and then put it back. Every children start screaming and saying our brother is died and the man killed him. Haleema became so worried, they come running outside and they found the prophet sitting, his face was pale. And when they saw him, they saw those lines on his chest. They became anxious about him and want to return him back to his mother.

Now Mohammad was 5 year old and it was finally a time to return Mohammad. Now it was very difficult for Haleema to separate herself from Mohammad. Before this an incident happened, one day she was sat with Mohammad and some Christian's passes through there and they start looking at Mohammad carefully and noticed everything about Mohammad. They start talking with each other by saying that we will adopt this kid, Haleema knew their intentions. She carries Mohammad and run away from there. And after that prophet (s.a.w) was returned to Aminah

Mohammad with his mother and grandpa:- When Mohammad was six, his mother took him to graveyard where his father Abdulla was buried, He was buried in Yathrib (Madena) and she had one servant with her that was gifted to her by Abdul-Mutalib, his name was Ummi Ayman. While returning from Madena she got sick and passed away at a village named Abwaa which lies between Mecca and Madena and was buried there. Now he became an orphan of the mother and father. Abdul-Mutalib now took him up for some months. Abdul-Muttalib treated Muhammad with more care and attention than his other children. When Mohammad (s.a.w) was eight years old his grandfather passed away. Now for the third time he became orphan. When Abdul-Mutalib was in death bed, he entrusted the prophet to his son Abu-Talib to take care of him. His uncle now took him up and a new stage of the Prophets (peace be upon him) life then began.

When Prophet Mohammad (p.b.u.h) was young:-

Prophet Mohammad grew up as obedient boy, when he was 12 years old he accompanied his uncle Abu-Talib on his journey to Busra, they travelled many months in a desert. The monk invited the Caravan to his house. While he introduced Muhammad to the monk, Bahira was very impressed. He then said to Abu-Talib "return with this boy, and guard him against the hatred of Jews. Abu-Talib didn't quite understand what the monk had meant, he thanked Bahira and return mecca.

All authorities agree that he had a great wisdom, manners and morals, which was rare among the people of Mecca. He was liked by everyone for his good character and wisdom and received a title of 'Al-Amin', which means the faithful. His uncle has lost most of his wealth and the prophet helped him by taking care of his flock. In that time people of Mecca used to fight with each other and when Prophet saw this he became sad.

Muhammad's (s.a.w) Marriage to Khadijah(r.a):- How did Prophet Mohammad(s.a.w) meet khadijah. It was so happened that the uncle of Prophet Mohammad (s.a.w) Abu Talib was financially struggling these days. So he asked Mohammad that we are struggling these days, what if I talk to elder sister of Khadijah to give you a work because she had a flock, Would you go for work, Mohammad answered politely yes uncle!. So her older sister hired Mohammad and other person to take their flock out and to graze them outside of Makkah. After the prophet (s.a.w) had finished the grazing they had to go back her house to collect wages.

At this time prophet (s.a.w) was probably 23 or 24 old. The young that was with him said, Now we are done let's go back to collect wages. So the Prophet (s.a.w) said, why don't you go on my behalf because I am too shy to go, because she's is a woman. When the person came to her and that time khadijah was in her house at that time, and he asked for his wages. Khadijah said where is Mohammad; He also has earned half of the wage. Where is he? So the man said, he was too shy to come and ask it from you. So Khadija's sister said that, I have not seen any man who is nobler and more honorable in his interactions, so she knows he's lowering his gaze. And then she kept on praising the Mohammad (s.a.w). Something entered her heart because he's being praised in such a noble manner. And later on this year, Khadija had to send her own caravans to Syria. She has owned lot of wealth, because she is a woman, she can't go herself. So every single time she has to hire a businessman.

She decided why I don't choose Mohammad (s.a.w) this time, so she sent message to Mohammad, why don't you take the charge of my caravan. The Prophet (s.a.w) went to Abu Talib and said. O my uncle! Khadijah has sent me such and such offer. What do you think? And Abu Talib said don't say no and this job is better than job you are doing. So the Prophet (s.a.w) said yes. And Khadija sent one of her servant with him and his name was Maysarah. Prophet (s.a.w) took the caravan to the city of Busra. When Maysarah came back, Maysarah told Khadija of the care and concern that the Prophet (s.a.w) had shown, of his honesty. And Prophet (s.a.w) made double or triple profit that anybody else had made before him. This is now increasing the emotions that she has. Now she is having a desire to marry the Prophet (s.a.w). So she told her friend Nafeesa that she expressed an interest in marrying the prophet (s.a.w). And Nafeesa said leave this to me. I will arrange it. And so she visited the Prophet (s.a.w). So she said to Mohammad 'why don't you marry', Mohammad (s.a.w) replied and said, who would marry me? Because i am the orphan, poor person of the Quraish. And so Nafeesa said, what if Khadijah wanted to marry you. So she is not saying Khadijah is sending me, so the Prophet (s.a.w) is thinking why she would want somebody like me.

So Nafeesa went back and told Khadijah, and there the matter went to stage two. Ibn Ishaac says the marriage took place in the month of Safar, Three months after he returned from Busra. Because of her father had died, so her uncle Amr Ibn Assad came to Abu Talib to talk about marriage. When Prophet (s.a.w) married he was 25 years 2 months and 10 days old. And Khadija was 40 and some says 28 years old.
